ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

MICHAEL DEANGELO JOHNSON-BROWN,

Case Number: 07-CR-20412-FL

Defendant

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.

Part I—Findings of Fact

- ☐ (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a ☐ federal offense ☐ state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed - that is
- ☐ a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).
- ☐ an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.
- ☐ an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in _____.
- ☐ a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.
- ☐ (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.
- ☐ (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the ☐ date of conviction ☐ release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1).
- ☐ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

Alternative Findings (A)

- (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in _____.
- ☐ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).
- (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

Alternative Findings (B)

- ☒ (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
- ☐ (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by ☐ clear and convincing evidence ☒ a preponderance of the evidence that detention is appropriate in this matter. The information presented at the hearing indicates that the defendant is unemployed, and that he has no employment history. It further appears that the defendant has used a number of different aliases and has obtained official identity documentation from Ohio on two of these false identities. In addition to numerous failures to appear on traffic citations, information from the Pretrial Officer further reveals that the defendant has three outstanding warrants. More importantly, however, is the fact that he failed to appear for a sentencing in a state court proceeding and later he also violated the terms of his state court probation. 18 U.S.C. 3142(g) outlines the factors to be considered in determining the release of an individual. Among those factors are the nature of the offense and the history and characteristics of the person, including his employment history and past conduct. Based upon the information presented at the hearing, considering the nature of the charges, his numerous failures to appear or to comply with court orders, and his ability to use multiple identities, defendant poses a risk of flight in this matter. The defendant shall be detained without bond pending trial on this matter.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the appeal time in this matter shall not run until 10 days from the date that the Pretrial Officer receives confirmation concerning identity on several of the warrant regarding this Defendant.

Part III—Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
